수상소감

중학생 때부터 떨리는 마음으로 한 권 한 권 사모으던 이슈에 제 그림이 실리게 된다는 사실이 꿈만 같습니다. 어린 날 저에게 에번 우근거림을 안겨주던 그분들이 작품처럼 언젠가 제가 그리는 이야기도 길으시는 분들께 재미와 두근거림을 드릴 수 있다면 좋겠어요! 그날을 위해 열심히 노력하겠습니다. 감사합니다!

90% of humans dream daily but most of them cannot recall what they dreamt clearly once they wake up.

The main cause of the memory loss is due to people waking up and using another consciousness layer. Memories from dreams remain in brain for some time

In other words, if you use proper technology, it is entirely possible to collect those fragments of memories and combine them as a single movie file.

There are those who must use dreams to keep their self-esteem assurance. They know it's not real.
a it's or big. They will find like me eventually.
Thanks to those, we earn money even without advertising.
Finding hope from a made-up dream? Just how low do they have to go to find some fake assurance? What a waste of energy if you ask me.
I am doing this only because the pay is better than any part time job I can find...

Jang Yun-Ji ?
Yes.
I will inject this into your vein.
Injection ?
Yes.
It contains nanobots.
It will flow in your vein until it reaches your brain.
Then it will start collecting fragments of memories related to dreams
Rest assured that it is safe.
You will feel no pain and the nanobots will pose you no health issues whatsoever.

They are programmed to return to the spot they were injected after they are done collecting.
It will take them about ten minutes to return. The injection spot will start to get swollen which is a sign that they've returned. Let me know when that happens.
Excuse me.
I wasn't going to ask to collect my dream, but my mother's.
Did you get your mother's permission?
I am her daughter. Why would I need to get her permission?

Excuse me now. Please do keep it secret that you called us.
Wait, please ! I have a reason for this !
10 years ago
Technology advacement allowed us to restore dreams into reality. And soon it became illegal. You know why ? Invasion of privacy.
Blackmailing with extracted dreams became a common practice for crimes.
If you really want to do this, next time, bring your mother with you

My mother is about to enter persistent vegetative state
.....
I told you I had a reason.
So ?
Why are you even asking?
I heard her story and all and said no at the end.

I've never received my mother's affection.
What was her reason anyway?
Well ...
I wondered that perhaps I was a step daughter, so I did a DNS test. And I was her biological offspring. That made it only worse.
Thankfully, my dad really cared for me a lot, so I was able to keep it quiet about it all my life. But in a corner of my mind, there was always a doubt and longing for my mother's affection.
Recently, my mother was involved in a car accident.
It was a big accident and even after numerous surgeries, her doctor said she may not wake up at all.

At one point, rued why she didnt' just die from the accident.
That may sound cruel but she has never beamed a grin, let alone smile, at me. I had no love for my mother.
So what happens after she becomes brain dead? Am I supposed to look after her until she dies?
Why should I ?
And then ...
It was the first time ...

My [illegible] ...
... came ...
Smiling at me like that... It was the very first time in my whole life.
She [illegible] hasn't [illegible] up [illegible] then. If [illegible] doesn't [illegible] up soon, [illegible] will [illegible] persistent vegetative state.
What [illegible] to [illegible] brain dead. She wants to [illegible] a smile at [illegible] by watching [illegible] dream, [illegible] is [illegible] to find [illegible] why [illegible] so cold to [illegible].

It wouldn't work anyway. Brain damage prevents nanobots to collect memories.
Don't be so sure. Until her doctor declares her brain dead, her brain is functional, meaning nanobots can download as long as they can reach it.
You want to do this ?
I thought your #1 rule was not to accept any without approval of client.

And then suddenly she started to sob rather loudly, dropping tears.
A pleased smile emerging from her face.
I was rather unfazed by the sudden turn of event due to hearing pleasant laughs from the laptop and -

Thank you.
You don't need to thank you.

We are doing this for money anyway.
Regardless, I finally got to understand what my mother went through.
She just couldn't express herself well and how much she regretted what she did to me all these years.
She was declared brain dead this morning. I don't know how much longer she will live, but I will do everything I can to look after her. It is my turn to pay her back
This morning...
I am glad that we weren't too late.

Anyways
Keep it secret
Ok, ok
Bye.
Everything turned out well.
That was a good timing
How did it go?
It went well.
You would know better. She seemed to have understood and forgiven her mother.
I see...

You don't sound pleased. What's going on ?
The movie file was altered.
What?
Altered? Are you out of your mind?! Explain yourself !
I found the truth out by looking at other fragments of her memories buried deep inside of her brain. She had a twin, an identical twin to be exact.

Her twin never had a chance to be born because the client sucked all energy out of her in their mother's womb.
The real dream was -
The mother successfully delivered the twin.
And her twin who died was loved deeply by the mother and grew up to be exactly like the client you met.
And the client ...

Became a monster for sucking all energy out of her twin and was wandering around the mother and daughter.
Then... Why did she smile at her daughter when she woke up?
Well, she most likely thought it was the daughter that never had a chance to be born.
She probably was unable to tell whether it was reality or dream.

did movie file ?

a monster
That's
I did."

At point, kneed
against the daughter cried in of her.
She most crying of guilt got to be born.

The client probably saw it differently since she didn't get to see the whole thing.

.....

It made me realize that I was really cheating on people's sincerity.
